Michael Ward v Patrick Warren, 2:19-cv-12543 (AJT)

Dear Mr. Weaver:

1. Please see the enclosed 4/6/20 letter I wrote to and sent CA6 Senior Case Mgr, Patricia Elder for that NEEDED CORRECTION
2. There have been several motions, some of which are emergency motions that have been on the docket now for several months. Would you inquire as to WHY Judge Tarnow has not ruled on any of them, in both habeas actions cited above.

One of the motions is an EMERGENCY COVID 19 MOTION FOR RELEASE ON HABEAS CORPUS OR BOND, given we now have 16 confirmed Covid 19 cases here at the Macomb prison, and we remain under lockdown/quarantene, and I am a fragile 69 yr old man, with a medical respiratory (COPD) and enlarged prostate history.

Thank you,

SUBJECT: CASE# TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR IN YOUR 3/31/20 LETTER

Dear Ms. Elder:

Please make the appropriate corrections in your files, and notify all appropriate parties of your error.

Specifically, I sent you a "Second Amended" Notice of Appeal; and in your 3/31/20 letter you cite as the Dist Ct case number 2:03-cv-72711, Michael Ward v Warden.

In fact the correct last 5 digit number is 72701, and the case caption has always been cited in all District Court orders, as Michael Ward v Hugh Wolfenbarger, Warden, #2:03-cv-72701.

I am happy to bring this mistake to you attention, and trust you will make all appropriate corrections, and notify all parties to whom you previously gave the misinformation.

Very truly yours,

P.S. Also NOTE and make corrections in your files, with notification on the parties, that case mgr Jill Colyer MISCAPTIONED the related two other appeals as Michael C. Ward v Willis Chapman, Warden, CA6: 20-1056 & 20-1093. Willis Chapman is only a short term "ACTING" Warden at this prison. And to avoid confusion, and to make it easier to follow the case history, as a matter of practice, IN THE PAST, whenever I have appealed in this case, the CAPTION in the CA6 has remained as that used by the District Court, i.e., Michael Ward v Hugh Wolfenbarger. PLEASE MAKE THAT CORRECTION IN THE CASE FILES AS WELL, and so notify the parties.
